COMMISSIONERS COURT ACTION REQUESTED

It is requested that the Commissioners Court consider the Attorney Employment Agreement engaging Mark Goldstucker with the Law Office of Mark Goldstucker as outside counsel for former Sheriff's employee JaQuavious Simmons.

BACKGROUND

Anthony R. Johnson, Sr., et al. v. Tarrant County, Texas, et al., Civil Action No. 4:24-cv-686-O, in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas, Fort Worth Division

Dear Judge O'Hare:

Thank you for considering me to serve as outside conflicts counsel in this matter. Specifically, I am writing to confirm that the Law Office of Mark E. Goldstucker (the "Law Firm") and Tarrant County, Texas (the "County") agree that the Law Firm will, upon approval by the Tarrant County Commissioners, represent former Tarrant County detention officer JaQuavious Simmons (the "Client") in his individual capacity.

Scope of Engagement: The Law Firm is authorized to represent the Client in this matter and to appear on the Client's behalf before courts, arbitration panels, or similar authorities as may be required to represent the Client. Except as may be limited by the attorney-client privilege, the Law Firm agrees to keep the County apprised of the status of the case as the case progresses.

Services and Rates: The legal services to be provided by the Law Firm include, but are not limited to, conferences (both in person and by telephone), correspondence, research, analysis, investigation, preparation of legal documents, meetings with parties, witnesses, and other necessary persons, negotiations, written discovery and depositions, trial and hearing preparation, appearances in court and in mediation, and all related work required to represent the Client properly in this matter.

The rates for legal services provided by the Law Firm are as follows:

$300.00 per hour for attorney services rendered by Law Firm. Additional expenses as may be required to represent the Client may be charged to the County, including but not limited to court costs, filing fees, postage and copy charges, courier fees, costs to create exhibits, expert and consultant fees, and other reasonably necessary items. The Law

Firm, however, will not hire outside experts or consultants, will not incur travel expenses, and will not incur any other substantial expense without the County's prior approval. The Law Firm will work with counsel for the County in this lawsuit pursuant to joint defense and common interest privileges to the extent ethically possible in order to avoid duplication of efforts and to reduce costs. The County understands that the Law Firm's ethical duty of loyalty is solely to the Client.

The Law Firm agrees to keep track of time and to submit redacted bills on a periodic basis for payment. Time will be billed in 1/10th increments. In order to meet existing deadlines and in order to preserve and protect the Client's interests, the Law Firm may have needed to perform certain necessary services prior to formal approval of this contract and may bill for such services.

The Law Firm shall use all reasonable means, including the utilization of dispositive pretrial motions as appropriate, to resolve this matter as quickly and inexpensively as reasonably and ethically possible. The Law Firm cannot guarantee specific outcomes nor guarantee the amount of time that will ultimately be needed to adequately represent the Client as much depends on actions taken by the opposing party, the Court, and other matters beyond my control, nor have I yet had an opportunity to fully review all relevant materials or formulate any sort of a reliable budget. The Law Firm will endeavor, however, to complete this assignment for less than $30,000.00 if at all possible. In the event the billing reaches $30,000.00, the Law Firm shall brief the Tarrant County Commissioners Court on the budget and request an additional reasonable amount to complete the matter.
